

SMALL ANIMAL HANDLING

To safeguard personnel while handling animals, Lomir manufactures a complete range of handling equipment designed and fabricated for flexibility, accurate touch control, comfort and safety during long periods of wear.

Lomir small animal handling gloves are a unique and innovative integration of comfort and technology. Spun ceramic material offers three times more slash resistance than Kevlar. These are a light weight glove yet strong and comfortable.

Spun ceramic provides extra protection from slashing and tearing.

Elastic wrist band allows for an accurate, comfortable and safe fit.
